Pallium

Published by the SENIOR CLASS of 1959
BISHOP CONATY MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL
Los Angeles, California

Dedication

Lady, Seat of Wisdom, Patroness of our chapel, to thee we lovingly dedicate this

Pallium, imploring thy guidance in attaining the Fullness of all Wisdom, thy Divine Son.

Theme

For the first time since the founding of Bishop Conaty Memorial High School in 1923, we are privileged to have among us our Eucharistic King. Around the chapel then, the heart and center of our school, we weave the theme of Pallium '59.

ARCHDIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

To the Students of
Bishop Conaty Memorial High School
2900 West Pico Boulevard
Los Angeles 6, California

My dear Students:

The history of the BISHOP CONATY MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL of Los Angeles, now constitutes a tradition that is staunch and stern. Over the years the faculty composed of diocesan priests and sisters from several of our Religious Communities have coordinated their efforts most diligently and successfully in formulating and training the young women of our fair City.

The Alumnae of the High School is large, it is most grateful and loyal, and it is ever appreciative of the manifold blessings received through this now memorable school.

Bishop Conaty Memorial High School stands forth as a monument, as a citadel in the heart of our City. It suggests to us the words spoken by Our Lord to St. John the Baptist, when He said: "What went you out into the desert to see? - a reed shaken with the wind? But what went you out to see? - a man clothed in soft garments? Behold, they that are clothed in soft garments are in the houses of kings. But what went you out to see? - a Prophet? Yea, and I tell you, more than a Prophet, for this is he of whom it is written - 'Behold I send my angel before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before me.' "

Bishop Conaty Memorial High School has been and is a St. John the Baptist in its ministry to a proud and worthy Alumnae.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

ARCHBISHOP
of Los Angeles

HIS EMINENCE, JAMES FRANCIS CARDINAL McINTYRE, ARCHBISHOP OF LOS ANGELES, is interviewed by Joanne Ashimoto and Cherie Courtois.

OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL

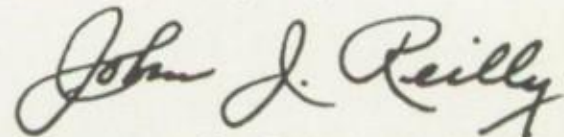

My dear Graduates:

The new chapel has been dedicated to the worship of Almighty God under the patronage of the Mother of God. The particular title of Our Lady, Seat of Wisdom, was chosen as a theme or pattern to be followed by you, the students, in your school life at Bishop Conaty High School. Each day all of us hope to attain a little more wisdom. This is the real goal of a sound education.

Wisdom is more than knowledge of the arts and sciences. It is a power of judging rightly and following the soundest course of action. Perhaps it could be described as the virtue which draws together all of the experiences that we encounter in life. Sacred Scripture gives a beautiful description of the way to rightfully attain wisdom: "The beginning of wisdom is the Fear of the Lord." It is this type of wisdom which we pray will come to you.

Right judgment is a vital part in making decisions. When God's point of view is kept first in the making of decisions, a wrong one will never be made. May Our Lady, Seat of Wisdom, guide you to rightful decisions and be your constant guardian in all that you do.

God bless you,

My dear Graduates:

I somehow feel that it is in keeping with the spirit of graduation to address you as "my fellow teachers." Strange as this may sound, you have been teaching during your four years at Conaty. Be it ever so indirect, your influence has affected many—one another, students from other classes, even the faculty. All have been the recipients of that teaching which has come through your example. I hope you have been conscious of this fact, and I trust you will not lose sight of it. Your influence—good or bad—has been widely felt.

As you leave Conaty to take your place as more mature young women among our alumnae, your role as teachers will continue. Only now your influence will be far wider, for your potential is beyond our ability to estimate.

With all humility let your personal example teach and show what is truly Catholic living. Show those with whom you associate that those Christian virtues which all men admire so greatly in women are not a mere Utopian ideal to be admired from afar, but a reality which you can indeed attain. Let your lives serve as proof of this accomplishment. May God bless and keep each of you.

Your friend in Christ,

Joseph Sartoris

Conadettes of '59

Senior Class Secretary-treasurer Peggy Ann Higgins; Vice-president Marilyn Sibbing.

Senior Class President Delia Salas.

Leaving Conaty we know that we will always remember these past four years. Under the vigilance of Our Lady Seat of Wisdom they have been progressive years, a time for seeking our goal—Catholic womanhood.

To you, Mother of Wisdom, we Conadettes offer you silent and humble gratitude for the many blessings you have obtained for us

- For the constant and paternal guidance of Father Weyer and Father Reilly.
- For the inspiration and prayers of the faculty.
- For the understanding and love of our parents.
- For the loyalty and interest of our fellow students.
- For the privilege of having your Son on campus during our senior year.
- For the numerous unknown sacrifices made for us.

And as we assemble for the final time, we implore your continued solicitude.

Perfect our love for your Son, help us to continue to grow in Wisdom and keep strong the bond of friendship and respect that exists in the Class of '59.

Sodality

"I am the Mother of fair love and of fear and of knowledge and of holy hope."
Ecclesiasticus 24:24

Sodality Prefect Shirley Skiles, Treasurer Joanne Delzer, Secretary Joyce Parkinson Vice-prefect Adele Shediak select pamphlets and reading material for sodalists' use during retreat.

Love of Christ—the aim of the sodalist. This love begins and matures in the chapel with frequent and informal talks with Mary and her Divine Son. From here this love seeks expression in action and example.

A leader for Christ—the goal of the sodalist. In achieving this goal the sodalist seeks the aid of the Mother who loved Him, provided for Him, protected Him and suffered with Him. She is the sodalist's life-long companion—for the sodalist is consecrated to Mary.

Sodality Council

Tuesday morning finds Sodality Council members, Pat Milke, Mary Louise Revillard, Peggy Wisner, Cecilia Coria, Joyce Parkinson, Joanne Delzer, Shirley Skiles, Barbara Wise, Adele Shediak, Patti

Ellis, Delia Salas, Joanne Bernal and Joan Brill, engrossed in their weekly meeting, planning future Sodality activities.

Canned Food Drive

Mission Committee members, Patti Ellis, Patricia Milke and Theresa Hernandez, display cans donated by the Student Body during the Canned Food Drive for the Little Sisters of the Poor.

Confraternity Gifts

Shirley Skiles and Jo Ann Delzer pack Christmas gifts for Confraternity pupils taught by the Helpers of the Holy Souls. Joyce Parkinson marvels at the generosity of Conaty's students.

Sodality Forum

Conaty plays host to the High School Union Sodality at the annual forum. Velma Loya and Jane D'Arcy represent Conaty in the discussion group of "The Sodalist in the Modern Generation."

Mission Committee

Looking at Japanese posters from Kyoto reminds the girls that collecting, counting and conveying "Koins for Kyoto," is a concern for the Mission Committee here represented by Marjorie Dang, Elfriede Strassberger, Ingrid Zwierlein, Melva Gutierrez, Elba Bermudez, Mary Jo Brophy, Mary Lou Perez, Priscilla Coonis, Donna Lavery and Kathy Freeman.

Patti Ellis and Patricia Milke, co-chairmen of the Mission Committee.

Besides fostering love for the Blessed Sacrament, Eucharistic Committee members, Margaret Hammer, Francine Doyle, Marie Neumeier, Carolyn Davenport, Mary Pat King, Ernestine O'Ward, Mary Helen Noz, Diane Alderson and Mary Higgins also make altar linens.

Barbara Wise and Mary Louise Revillard, co-chairmen of the Eucharistic Committee.

Eucharistic Committee

To strengthen Catholic thought, spirit and action, is the aim of the Catholic Truth Committee. Irene Torres, Jody Dennis and Gloria Hakim participate in a discussion while Mary Magana, Kathy Hook, Sandra Gaudin, Doreen Brown and Helen Wright listen attentively.

Catholic Truth Committee

Cecilia Coria and Joan Brill, co-chairmen of the Catholic Truth Committee.

Confraternity Committee

Joanne Delzer, chairman of the Confraternity Committee.

Margaret Mortz, Joanne Sibbing, Shiela La Blanc, Joanne Ashimoto, Mildred Seruby, Brenda Triggs, Sharon Krakawiak and Barbara Dahl, with the helpful guidance of Sister Cyril H.H.S., learn the fundamental methods of teaching Catechism to small children.

Sodality Aspirants

JoAnne Bernal instructs a class of aspirants who will soon be received as members of Our Lady's Sodality.

Field Day Activities

Activities

"The Lord will guard your coming and your going . . ."
Psalms 120:8

Interested Friends

Bishop Timothy Manning receives a visit from Ingrid Steinwasser and Rosemarie Guerena who thank him for the personal interest he shows in Conaty.

God's special blessings in the form of a chapel and a library have come to Conaty this year through the hands of His Eminence, the Cardinal, and his Auxiliary Bishops.

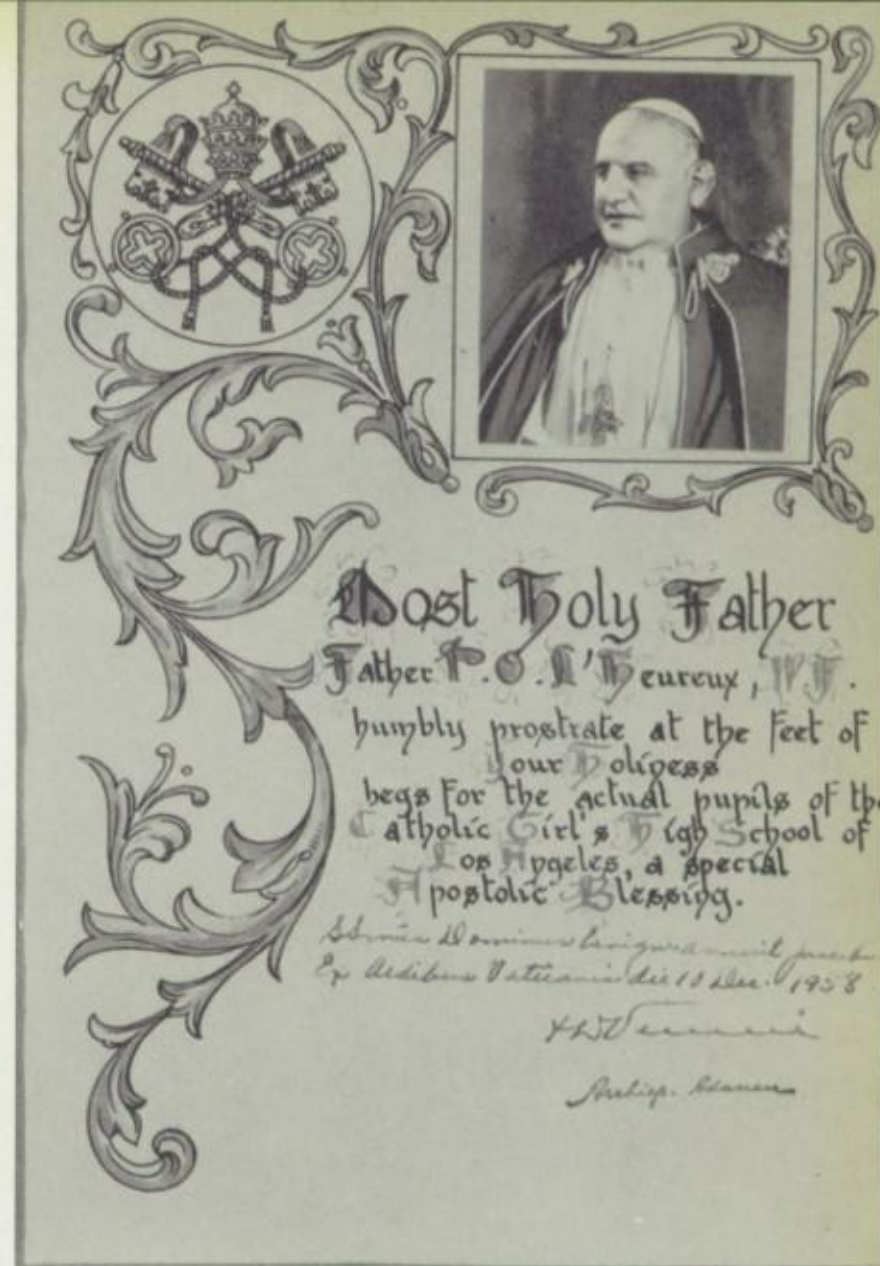

Sharon Sink and Aubrey Preston enjoy an informal conversation with Bishop Alden Bell who admires a picture of the new library.

Blessings

Father P. O. L'Heureux, W.F., during his recent visit to Rome, obtained for "the actual students" of Bishop Conaty High School the Apostolic Blessing of His Holiness, Pope John XXIII.

Christina Hostettler checks out a book from the Sister-librarian while Peggy Higgins, Pat Kinerk and Carol Plotner enjoy studying in the peaceful surroundings.

On the feast of Saint Teresa of Avila Father John Reilly, principal, sings the first Mass in Our Lady Seat of Wisdom Chapel with the faculty members assisting.

Retreat

Annually each Conaty girl accepts Christ's invitation to "come apart and rest awhile and see that I am God" by making a three-day retreat. During this time, under the retreat-master's direction, the student considers the progress she has made "before God and men."

Reverend Lawrence Donnelly and Reverend John Reilly prepare to assist His Excellency, Bishop Timothy Manning, at Benediction which concludes Conaty's annual retreat.

Wilma Castro and Cherie Courtois discuss the fruits of their retreat with Reverend Francis Cahill and Reverend Sylvester Ryan.

Vocation Week

Charlotte Johnson learns from Sister Mary Pauline something about the Medical Mission Sisters' work in Pakistan and India, while Sister Mary Samuel and Ann Arrendorf discuss hospital work in Venezuela.

Intellectual Achievements

Annually the Bank of America offers certificates of merit to outstanding students in various fields. Trophies are awarded for Liberal Arts, and for Mathematics and Science.

Recipients are, SEATED: Delia Salas, business; trophy winners: Robin Robinson for social studies and Liberal Arts, and Wilma Castro for Science and Math; Sharon Sink, language; Rose Husar, mathematics; Elli Van Zeyl, art; Margaret Hammer, English; Cecilia Hashii, music.

Science projects, ranging from color wheels to nuclear reactions, are among the furnishings of the Physics lab during the month of March. Winning projects, judged by qualified faculty members, are entered in the Science Fair held at Mount St. Mary's College.

With apparatus set up for a demonstration of mammalian respiration, Sandra Gaudin and Margaret Mortz watch Peggy Higgins put "Winthrop" into the testing jar.

By achieving a ninety percent average during the second semester, these seniors become sealbearers of the National Honor Society.

Actors in Conaty's prize-winning presentation "Le Voyage de Monsieur Perrichon" are Elba Bermudez, Rose Marie Bernauer, Mary Crosetti, Mary Louise Revillard, Robin Robinson and Gloria Hakim.

To promote interest in modern languages, Mount St. Mary's College hosts a Modern Language Festival. Students present one-act plays before native speakers who judge the productions. This year Conaty's French Department ranked first in the competition.

Beaming with joy, the happy Skippers, Roberta Kitchupolos, Rose Mary Garcia, Judy La Pierre, Jane Leaver, Erlinda Diaz, Margaret Kinerk, Susan Neale and Betty Harmel view the reunion of Prince Charming, (E. O'Ward) with his lovely Cinderella (A. Lundberg).

Cinderella (Annie Lundberg) and Prince Charming (Ernestine O'Ward) "... live happily ever after," as the story book says.

In their production "The Stolen Prince," Royal-ettes, Dolores Hernandez and Yolanda Garcia, rescue Prince Joy from the river.

Entertainments

These energetic freshmen, Paula Duvall, Sharon O'Ward, Bernice Waller (standing) Rose Mary Wisner, Georgette Petrone, busy themselves with writing the script for their entertainment, "Miss Topper Travels."

Stella Muro, Rose Molinar and Jody Dennis rejoice when Lee Mee, the duck, catches the "honorable, royal fish."

The Littlest Angel (Ingrid Klopp) watches intently as her name is entered in the Great Book by the Recording Angel (Donna van der Linden).

Shepherds (Angela Grant and Kathleen Hook) reverently kneel beside the angels (Kathleen Duefrene, Carol Lukesh, Victoria Belmonte, Donna Lavery, Glazina Goode, Robin Robinson, Ingrid Steinwasser) and the Littlest Angel, to pay homage to the Infant King, Our Blessed Mother (Virginia Matcovich), and St. Joseph (Yvette Perrault).

Senior Productions

While, Mary Basham fits one costume on Marjorie Dang, other members of the crew, Gloria Rios, Elli Van Zeyl, Delia Salas, Joanne Ashimoto and Cecilia Calva, are merrily cutting and sewing on the remainder of the costumes for the "Mikado."

Peep Bo (Patti Elis) and Katisha (Robin Robinson) can't bear to watch Ko Ko (Denis Whitcomb) execute Nanki Poo (Ed Reese)—but then neither can Ko Ko. Yum-Yum (Carol Lukesh), Pitti Sing (Mary Ann Kenney), and Pooh Bah (Terry O'Brien) plead for the hero's life.

Going Places and Making Things

Latin scholars leaving for Stockton to attend the Junior Classical Latin Convention are Agnes Duerr, Joan Brill, Shirley Skiles, Judy Smith and Sharon Sink.

Representing Conaty at Girls' State this summer, Patricia Milke will learn first-hand how our government functions by participating in a model session of the legislature at Sacramento.

Reverend James Markey, S.J. explains the program to Joyce Parkinson, Joanne Ashimoto, Carmen Vasquez, Ponchita Pierce, Cherie Courtois and Gloria Hakim, hostesses of the 1958 Journalism Seminar at Loyola University.

Modeling spring fashions made in sewing class are Gail Daste, Judy Sanders, Sarah Rodriguez, Mary Teresa Zavala, Era Glenn, Norma Brambila, Susan Hennessey, Kay Johnson, Patricia Rodriguez, Brigitte Gartner. SEATED: Mary Mahler, Elaine Saulet and Charlotte Johnson.

Conaty's generous seamstresses Virginia Matcovich, Alice Olivas, Erna Weiss, Penny Fujita, Glenda Castro, Patricia Dang, Irene Ulloa, Maria Brouwers, Era Glenn, Margaret Runge, Miriam Johnson, Ellen Chertoff and Phyllis Harwell present Miss Mignonette Miquel with beautiful new dresses for needy children.

Musical Memories

Anticipating a full evening of entertainment during the "Corn Huskers Ball," these couples arrive at the Los Angeles Breakfast Club.

An evening of gliding in step to popular rhythm delights the blithe spirits of those who attend the New Year "Fantasia" held at the Statler.

While awaiting their escorts to the Junior-Senior prom at the Ambassador, Virginia Matcovich, Elfriede Strassberger, Elfriede Dittrich and Donna Wolslau admire the unique design of their bids.
